SMALL GROUP SESSIONS TO HELP 12TH GRADERS GET A HEAD START ON COLLEGE ADMISSIONS ESSAYS

These fast-paced, small group sessions are a great way for 12th graders to get a head start on college admissions essays. During the boot camp (3 days, two hours per day) our college counseling team will guide students through the development of a college essay/personal statement, which can be used or adapted for college admissions.

APPLY NOW! Essay Boot Camp students will learn about the following:

- the importance of clear, concise, and engaging writing
- common writing mistakes and how to avoid them
- brainstorming essay topics, including how to think about what makes the student unique
- choosing a topic that they are passionate about
- how supplemental essays differ from the personal statement and how to approach writing them
- brainstorming ideas for supplemental essays

PLEASE NOTE: Your non-refundable payment is required to reserve your spot. Students must attend all three days of the session. No make-up dates or transfers to other sessions are available. A laptop computer is required for participation.
